Origin

Summing up the Auvers-sur-Oise Festival would be equivalent to skimming through 40 years of international musical life. From Rostropovitch to Richter and Cziffra, Crespín to Bartoli and Barbara Hendricks, the list of stars who have turned out brilliant performances there are enough to make one's head spin. But the festival's history is more than just a roll call of bold-face names; what matters is its spirit, which has remained unchanged since 1981 and amounts to two words: youth and innovation.

The audience is international and it's nearly 180 000 artists and 350 000 festival-goers who have come since the first edition of the Festival ; moreover 17000 pupils have benefited from musical raise awareness. Not to mention the construction of a 30 stop organ and 300000 CD released by its label young talents Discauvers
